Reasons for the Passage of the Bill.

TARIFF LEGISLATION.

The Senate Bill Nearly Ready for Publication.

Determination to Pass it this Session Announced.

It Necessary a Recess will be Taken for the Election.

Campaign Orators of the Nation at Work in Indiana.

WASHINGTON, September 24.—The senate finance committee will probably report the tariff bill, which has been formulated by the subcommittee, to the full committee for consideration tomorrow morning. It will be ready, it is believed, for final publicity to give the house an opportunity to finance an election report would. Senator Beck is confident that the bill will reduce the revenue about $60,000,000.

It is the present purpose of the majority to press the measure for adjournment until the bill is passed, and if the election does happen long enough before the 6th of November a recess will be taken, probably between the 20th and 25th of October.

The Indiana Campaign

INDIANAPOLIS, September 24.—General Sheridan addressed a large audience in this city tonight. Senator Chase opened his campaign for the republican ticket at Plymouth this evening. Anna Dickinson spoke at Terre Haute tonight. General Bussey at Seymour, Gen. F. W. Palmer at Lapeire, Major Pangborn at Logansport, C. H. Lieutman at Greensburg, while Fred Douglass, Corporal Tanner, Judge Tourgee and a host of other speakers are addressing meetings at other points. On the democratic side the showing is equally strong in numbers and talent.

The Yellow Fever Outbreak.

JACKSONVILLE, September 24.—Disagreeable weather. Reports up to noon show 42 cases more than two thirds of which are colored people. Five deaths in the past eighteen hours. The situation indicates little prospect of improvement. Business is cut off by local quarantine throughout the state. More than half the stores are closed, others doing little business. Only one regular train arrives and departs each day on the various railroads except those [illegible] small. Boat lines on the river from this point have all stopped.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., September 24.—The quarantine established Friday by this city against Greenville, Ala., was removed this morning, it being certain that there was no cause.

JACKSON, Miss., September 24.—No new yellow fever cases and no deaths officially reported. It is rumored, however, that there are two new cases. The surrounding country is filled with refugees camping in the woods.

MEMPHIS, September 24.—A meeting of the joint committee of the cotton and merchants' exchange and the city authorities was held today at noon. Stringent quarantine regulations which have been amended by the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That passes be issued upon certificate of the president of the taxing district and the president of the board of health to persons to come in and out of the city, who will not go to any other infected district, that this authority will bring in produce or carry out supplies in wagon or other vehicles.

Resolved, That any person or persons who are at present at quarantine stations shall be permitted to come to the city upon permits issued by the taxing district authorities when satisfactory evidence is shown that they have not been in any affected district.

Local military companies reported for duty today, and are said to be ready to go to duty as pickets on dirt roads.

JACKSONVILLE, September 24.—Yesterday's northeaster has been succeeded by a cold rain and drizzle that has continued throughout the day and evening. This weather is unfavorable for the sick, but it is encouraging to note that only five deaths have been reported. New cases however, still continue in abundance. The report to day shows 113, of which 85 are colored and 28 whites.

FERNANDINA, Fla., September 24.—The board of health has officially declared that yellow fever exists in the city. Louise B. Grant of Newark, Ohio, who came in from Decatur, Ala., last night and is at the crapire hospital has developed decided symptoms of yellow fever. He will be treated for the disease.

MOBILE, September 24.—Owing to restrictions of quarantine regulations in Mississippi, Tennessee and Kentucky the Mobile and Ohio stopped to night all through passenger and freight trains on that road. Traffic will be resumed Manager Clark says, when resolution removes her sway and demoralization ends.

MEMPHIS, September 24.—A meeting of the joint committee of the cotton and merchants' exchange and the city authorities was held to day at noon. Stringent quarantine regulations which have Myrtle lodge Knights of Pythias extends its thanks to the citizens who so generously contributed to the successful outing of the grand lodge in this city. Especially those who subscribed to the drill prize and those who opened their doors to the visiting members of the order.

James Morrissey, who some days ago injured J. Robinson by shooting him in the leg while attempting to shoot "Bill" Henderson at the lower camp in the south part of the city, was yesterday brought before Justice Shideler for examination. The justice bound him over to the district court in the sum of $2,000

A meeting of the members of the El Paso Cricket and Tennis club, has been called for tomorrow evening at the house of the president, Captain De Coursey, No 218 North Weber street. Business of the very greatest importance will be presented to the meeting, and all members are therefore earnestly requested to attend at 8 o'clock p m sharp.

We wish to remind our readers of the stereopticon exhibition to be given in the First M E church to morrow evening in aid of the public school library. This effort of the students to help themselves is worthy of all praise and we hope our citizens will not fail to buy tickets "The Grandeur of America in a Trip Through Our Own Country" is the subject to be illustrated Admission 25 cents

Admirers of the Grays were enthusiastic over the news from Denver last evening. The home team beat the Solis to the tune of 14 to 10 To day they will play the Solis again at the River Front park and an excursion train will leave over the Santa Fe railroad at 10 o'clock to carry the friends of the club and others desiring to make a visit to Denver. The Fitchburg band will accompany the excursion, and as a very low rate has been secured for the trip this will be one of the largest excursions of the season The special will leave Denver at 9:15 p m

Mr. Nat Cleveland, of Haverly minstrels who will appear at the opera house on Monday, October 1st is bringing us a troupe within a troupe The Imperial company of ten Japanese performers are but a small portion of the famous Haverly minstrels as reorganized for the present season, the entire roster of the Mastodons numbering almost half a hundred names The Japs, however are one of the novel features of this big array of talent. It is not every manager who has the hardihood to add such an attraction to an already stupendous aggregation but they are creating as much talk and anticipation that the savvy manager is certain to reap a golden harvest for his outlay of time and labor.

A glance at the list of republican nominators on the stump in Indiana will give an idea of the earnestness of the work being done in that state.

The republican tariff bill will be reported to the senate in a few days and the people will be given an opportunity of comparing it with the Mills bill. It is said it will accomplish a reduction of sixty-five millions.

It is now reported that the Chinese government rejected the new treaty because of the passage of the Scott exclusion bill and not on account of changes made by the senate. The matter now is in the hands of the president for signature.

The independent papers now supporting Cleveland have a very hard time trying to appease conscience. The last issue of Harper's Weekly is a good example. The editor of Harper's Weekly is a man ... and has been in sympathy with whatever was pure in our politics. His editorials have been characterized by candor and ability. But the last issue discussing the letters of Cleveland and Harrison and the nomination of Hill, must have been a severe strain upon his conscience. Mr Curtis must become a supporter of President Cleveland by reason of his position on civil service reform. In Cleveland's letter he finds no expression in favor of civil service reform. This is specially significant, since he has been compelled by his party to modify the position which he took in his letter of 1884. Yet Mr. Curtis takes no notice of this silence. General Harrison on the other hand gives the most explicit promises which are in every way satisfactory. He goes further than Mr Cleveland did in 1884, yet Mr Curtis, while noticing this passage in the letter, dismisses it with the remark that the pledges do not amount to much because Mr. Harrison will be simply the tool of his party. But it should occur to Mr Curtis that if Mr Harrison is a tool of his party, he is far preferable to a man who is a tool of the democratic party, and this Mr. Cleveland most conspicuously is. Had Cleveland been a civil service reformer and the only paper in which he could properly allude to the subject, he disposed of it in a word. He was opposed to two planks which made professions of civil service reform in 1884. It was not done this in 1888, and Mr Cleveland himself, in practically ignoring the subject in his letter, shows that he is after all not very much stronger than his party, and it knows very much as politicians of all parties do, would like power. Mr Curtis throws some light on the subject in another column, but he needs more.—The wicked case of Governor Hill of New York has been fully exposed in Harper's Weekly. He represents the lowest, most corrupt and most dangerous kind of politics. Yet Mr. Curtis, while condemning his nomination and the man in strong terms and advising the support of Cleveland to avoid Hill, says editorially the favor of the democratic party in New York much more of a favorite than

A FAMOUS INDIAN CHIEF.

(Special Correspondence.)

By Paul Sioux—Period when the facts are all known will be discovered that Sitting Bull has ... notoriously ... the Indians against signing the treaty at Standing Rock than any other man. But he is an Indian of large brain, as the writer ascertained while traveling with him for three months in the west. He is, of course, in his nature not a great warrior, but rather a safe counselor, as he saw the great inferiority of the Indians in fighting with the whites. He is a thoughtful savage, and his travels in New York Philadelphia and Brooklyn, in fact taught him the ways of the whites to such an extent that he is now well able to cope with them. He is especially good as a talker and a bargainer. In fact, the writer once saw him ... to the most powerful Indians on the American continent. That fact had much to do with shaping those ... tribe the events it controls.

Sitting Bull's Indian name is Ta-tan-Kan-ya-ton-Ka, and he was born on the banks of Grand river within the boundaries of the great Sioux reservation about forty-five miles southeast from the present Standing Rock agency in Dakota. He is forty-eight years of age, has a very large head, is cool and thoughtful, very decided in his ways, and yet wild Indian to an unusual degree. Answering with argument Hiram Price, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or Standing Rock, which is to be remembered by those who passed, who has fallen, whose name was Sitting Bull, took counsel with him on the subject, for both the wisdom and the experience of the Sioux chief have gained for him the confidence of his people.
